

David Ramos Muñoz is an Associate Professor of Commercial Law at Carlos III University of Madrid, where he co-directs the Master in International Advocacy, and where he received a Prize of Excellence in Research in 2016. He is also a Visiting Professor at the University of Bologna, where he coordinates the module on Crisis Management at the Master in Law and Practice of the Banking Union. David has a background in Law and Business Administration, and has published books and articles in international journals, on Financial Law, Corporate Law, Contract Law and Arbitration, as well as on matters closer to Fundamental Rights and the rule of law, and has participated three times in the European Central Bank (ECB) Legal Research Program. He is a fellow academic member of the European Banking Institute (EBI), where he heads the Working Group on Finance, Climate Change and Sustainability. He is an Alternate Member of the Appeal Panel of the Single Resolution Board, and part of the advisory group of experts of the European Parliament on Bank Resolution. He is a lawyer at the Madrid Bar, and has acted as arbitrator in commercial and investment arbitration, and as an expert witness in litigation and investment arbitration cases.