

CV Dr. Jens Fürhoff

Director-General of the Directorate for Policy, International Affairs and Analysis of Securities Supervision, BaFin

Jens Fürhoff is a fully trained German lawyer and has been serving BaFin for more than 25 years now in a number of different positions. He started his career in securities supervision and was the German contact person in the Committee of European Securities Regulators (CESR) and member of several CESR Working Groups in the early 2000s.

In his previous position, Jens Fürhoff was Director-General of BaFin's AML Directorate and responsible for the AML supervision of all German banks, insurance companies and financial service providers. In this capacity, he was BaFin's representative in all AML-related matters on national and international level. He was co-chair of the FATF Europe Eurasian Regional Review Group from 2010 to 2018 and chairperson of the Anti-Money-Laundering Committee (AMLC), a joint group under the aegis of the Joint Committee of the three European Supervisory Agencies ESMA, EIOPA and EBA, from 2014 to 2018.
