

SABINA BEŠTER

Education:

June 1991 – University of Ljubljana, Faculty of Economics, Bachelor Degree

March 1999- University of Ljubljana, Faculty of Economics, Master of Science, Economy

Employment:

September 1991 - September 1993

Nova Ljubljanska banka d.d. (NLB Velenje) – treasury department

September 1993 –

Securities Market Agency, Ljubljana

Employed since the establishment of the new authority, actively involved in preparations for its operations (Securities Market Agency formally in operation from April 1994), mainly:

- Primary securities market (prospectuses approval), issuers' reporting (regulation and supervision), takeovers' approval and supervision, financial market regulation in general;
- International cooperation and coordination since 2000; active participation in accession process of Slovenia to the EU, coordinating of activities for IOSCO membership and later the OECD, daily involvement in CESR – ESMA activities, occasionally with the IMF – WB, OECD as well as other organizations, institutions and authorities;
- Assistant Director and Head of International Relations Department from July 2000 to December 2018 (additionally during this period also Head of Primary Market from 2004 - 2008);
- Deputy Director and Head of International Relations Department from January 2019 on;
- Active in CESR / ESMA work from May 2004 (CESR-Pol – MISC, Review Panel – SCSC, ESMA internal coordinator) and in international cooperation (IOSCO and bilaterally);
- Participation on CESR Plenaries from May 2008 on, ESMA Alternate Board member from January 2011 on.